ANOTHER year has passed,

And still we do not know the truth.

We will not rest till justice is done!

That was the resolve with which a group of Anak Bangsa Malaysia,

Stallered to remember, the known and unknown human beings, who died in the custody of the

Some with their friends and family members gathered at the spot where Teoh Beng Hock's body was found to pay their respects to the late political aide whose life was cut short in 2004, lit a candle for all those who have died in custody and sang songs of protest. Here, Wira Nagaenthiran Nirjidad poignantly with a beautiful rendition of the song, Teoh Beng Hock Wira Nagaenthiran Nirjidad

And, yes... the gentle hand says..."We have not forgotten!"
