

Written by straits-mongrel

Tuesday, 23 March 2010 23:01 - Last Updated Wednesday, 24 March 2010 01:12

Ah, Kuching. If only more Malaysian cities could learn from this city. Kuching grew from the banks of a river, and today the city still acknowledges its roots beautifully. A wide riverwalk,

SABM Roadshow No 5 - Kuching

Written by straits-mongrel

Tuesday, 23 March 2010 23:01 - Last Updated Wednesday, 24 March 2010 01:12

lined with mature shady trees, hugs the edge of a lazy Sarawak River. Boats still ply the waterway ferrying their loads.

Tuesday, 23 March 2010 23:01 - Last Updated Wednesday, 24 March 2010 01:12

[illegible]

Wednesday, 24 March 2010 01:12
The Sabah Roadshow No 5 - Kuching is a series of events organized by the Sabah Business and Investment Council (SBIC) to promote Sabah as a business and investment destination. The roadshow is part of a larger initiative to attract foreign investment and create jobs in Sabah. The events include seminars, workshops, and networking opportunities for business leaders and investors. The roadshow is held in various cities in Sabah, including Kuching, Jesselton, and Sandakan. The roadshow is a valuable opportunity for businesses and investors to learn more about Sabah and its potential for growth and development.

Sunder's Gardner, lawyer representing Mindichy Shing, based in the "Woodbridge" police

SABM Roadshow No 5 - Kuching

Written by straits-mongrel

Tuesday, 23 March 2010 23:01 - Last Updated Wednesday, 24 March 2010 01:12

Sports betting goes back as far as ancient Greece and is popular all over the world today. You can bet on the outcome of the football

SABM Roadshow No 5 - Kuching

Written by straits-mongrel

Tuesday, 23 March 2010 23:01 - Last Updated Wednesday, 24 March 2010 01:12

© 2010 Straits Times. All rights reserved. This page may not be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without prior written permission from the Straits Times.

Special photo courtesy of Wita K. Bangsa Malay people. The shabbily used spot type, from the Kuching