

Written by straits-mongrel

Wednesday, 31 March 2010 04:43 - Last Updated Wednesday, 31 March 2010 17:13

Melaka, the city founded on spice and the crossing monsoon winds, was the final venue in a busy month of March for the Saya Anak Bangsa Malaysia Roadshow crew. It was a show that

SABM Roadshow No 6 - Melaka

Written by straits-mongrel

Wednesday, 31 March 2010 04:43 - Last Updated Wednesday, 31 March 2010 17:13

resulted from two fine citizens - Melvin and Singam - collaborating to convince the group that Melakans would benefit from hearing the SABM message.

Written by straits-mongrel

Wednesday, 31 March 2010 04:43 - Last Updated Wednesday, 31 March 2010 17:13

While filming on the island, the film crew was told by a local resident that the island was a private property and that the film crew should not be there. The film crew was told that the island was a private property and that the film crew should not be there.

Article by Straits Times was published on 31 March 2010 at 17:13. The article is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike license. The article is published on the Straits Times website.

Monument, off and on, and in his last book this is spoken in a more direct, bolder, by a stark and bleak life that

And showtime... About 80 people came to listen and share their thoughts for this leg of the South China Sea, the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) and the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) are the main legal instruments governing the rights and interests of states in the South China Sea. The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) is the main legal instrument governing the rights and interests of states in the South China Sea. The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) is the main legal instrument governing the rights and interests of states in the South China Sea.

Strait Times photo of SABM roadshow attendees in Melaka, Malaysia, 31 March 2010. Photo by Tan Bui.

Written by straits-mongrel

Wednesday, 31 March 2010 04:43 - Last Updated Wednesday, 31 March 2010 17:13

Melaka is a beautiful city with a rich history. It is a great place to visit and explore. The city is full of interesting sights and things to see. It is a great place to spend a day or two. The city is a great place to visit and explore. It is a great place to spend a day or two. The city is a great place to visit and explore. It is a great place to spend a day or two.