Accompanied by a lazy drizzle, a group of people gathered in front of the Egyptian embassy in KL to show solidarity with the people of Egypt whose battle to overthrow their president is being met with an iron fist. Information on what's going on in Egypt can be found here and here .

Below are images of the peaceful gathering.

The demonstration was peaceful and rather timid as compared to that which is taking place in Egypt. A few political figures were present alongside activists and members from NGOs as well as members of the public.

Demonstrators walked from the park near Jalan Tasik Ampang Hilir towards the Egyptian Embassy where the police were standing by to prevent any further incidents.

Speeches were made by a few people explaining the reason for the gathering and to express

Egyptian citizens who are currently residing in Malaysia were present to also show solidarity with their fellow citizens back home.

And they were supported by Malaysians who are equally concerned.
