

Green (n,. adj.)

O.E. grene "green, young, immature, raw," earlier groeni, from W.Gmc. **gronja-* (cf. O.S. grani, O.Fris.

grene

, O.N.

grænn

, Dan.

grøn

, Du.

groen

, O.H.G.

gruoni

, Ger.

grün

), from PIE root *

ghre

-

"grow" (see

grass

), through sense of "color of living plants."

\(attr - Online Etymology Dictionary\)

blue to green. It is a colour, in various translations, that stands for freshness, regeneration,

Meninjau Hijau

Written by straits-mongrel

Saturday, 25 February 2012 10:05 - Last Updated Saturday, 25 February 2012 12:47

---

Content not available due to technical issues. Please check back later.

Meninjau Hijau

Written by straits-mongrel

Saturday, 25 February 2012 10:05 - Last Updated Saturday, 25 February 2012 12:47

---

Copyright © 2012 by straits-mongrel. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

Meninjau Hijau

Written by straits-mongrel

Saturday, 25 February 2012 10:05 - Last Updated Saturday, 25 February 2012 12:47

---

Meninjau Hijau

Written by straits-mongrel

Saturday, 25 February 2012 10:05 - Last Updated Saturday, 25 February 2012 12:47

---

~~This document is intended for the use of the name, for consultation on the basis of this Guida~~