The skies were a threatening grey by 8 o'clock. It would surely be a matter of minutes before the rain poured. In the backdrop of the numerous pondok panas set up at the Barisan Nasional's gathering point, the Port Dickson sea was etching dark and gloomy lines. But inside the pondok, a different sentiment permeated.

Panas
indeed.

Overheard: "Today, we change the story. No way dia boleh menang 8-0 (in the peninsula)."
